RR-FL-168:

The occurrence and evolution of imagery oil paintings is a sudden change in the gene of world art history. It is the expression of Chinese traditional philosophy and aesthetic spirit through the artistic expression language of oil painting. It is not only a subjective spiritual experience, but also includes the performance of objects. Imagery oil painting vividly expresses the characteristics of the blending of imagery and oil paintings. It is the international cultural identity formed by the Chinese dialectical natural imagery's way of thinking and the conversion of narrative experience projection into the aesthetic structure of oil painting language.
